

SUPERIOR GOLD INC. EMPOWERS SITE MANAGEMENT TEAM FOR CONTINUED SUCCESS

Toronto, Ontario, September 14, 2018 – Superior Gold Inc. (“Superior Gold” or the “Company”) (TSXV:SGI) announced an update to its site operations team at its Plutonic Gold operations.

Chris Bradbrook, President and CEO of Superior Gold stated: “We are pleased to announce that Frederick Labuschagne (“Lappies”) has been appointed as General Manager, Plutonic Gold operations. Lappies has more than 28 years experience in progressively increasing supervisory underground mining roles in Australia, Africa and Papua New Guinea. Of particular significance is his experience at the Plutonic Gold Mine since 2010. We are confident that the combination of Lappies’ experience and his on-site management team, will allow us to continue to realize the full potential of the Plutonic Gold operations.

Corey Doust (former Vice President Operations, Plutonic) has left the Company to pursue other interests. I would like to thank Corey for all of his positive contributions to the Company and wish him well in his future endeavours.”

About Superior Gold

Superior Gold is a Canadian based gold producer that owns 100% of the Plutonic Gold operations located in Western Australia. The Plutonic Gold operations include the Plutonic gold mine, which is a producing underground operation with a central mill, the Hermes open pit gold mine and up to an 80% interest in the Bryah Basin joint venture. Superior Gold is focused on expanding production at the Plutonic Gold operations and building an intermediate gold producer with superior returns for shareholders.
